

The winelist for Laura has been curated to compliment Phil Wood's culinary interpretation of the Mornington Peninsula. This collection celebrates the diversity of wine and its unique ability to take us on an endlessly rich and fulfilling journey. We can match a wine to each and every course for you, or you can build your own experience by choosing à la carte. Either way, I encourage you to engage with our knowledgeable team when deciding what to drink at Laura.

*Where we would usually pour 150ml for a standard glass of dry wine, we occasionally pour 120ml with the Coravin. This allows us to reduce the price accordingly, making these wines even more accessible.

Coravin is a wine preservation system that allows us to extract a glass of wine from a bottle without taking the cork out. The technology permits us to pour some premium wines by the glass and avoid unnecessary wastage.

KELLER

Dual vigneron, Klaus-Peter and his wife Julia turn conventional wisdom upside down by slowing down photosynthesis to achieve a long and slow ripening period. The entire Keller estate crops lower than many Grand Cru vineyards in Burgundy and produces some of the most exciting dry Rieslings in Germany.

JOH JOS PRÜM

Joh Jos Prüm are in the middle part of the Mosel Valley in Germany. The family-owned estate is synonymous with late-harvest Riesling. Sugar seems to enhance their site-specific character, as they magically transcend each part of a dining experience.

MOREAU-NAUDET

Stéphane Moreau, influenced by the great artisanal winemakers before him, turned his family domaine around by making authentic, ripe and textural Chablis. Moreau-Naudet work with low-yielding mature vines, in the very best terroirs. They ferment naturally and age their wines in large format (old) oak barrels.

TOLPUDDLE

In 2011, cousins Martin Shaw and Michael Hill Smith MW (Shaw + Smith) purchased a vineyard in Coal River Valley, Tasmania. Working with mature Pinot Noir vines, their love for Burgundy, along with their winemaking pedigree, have resulted in a run of restrained yet vibrant wines.

ROBERT CHEVILLON

At the core of Domaine Robert Chevillon are some impressive vineyard sites situated in Nuits-Saint-Georges. The style is perfumed, juicy, balanced, concentrated and rich. This is a pleasure-giving Domaine, that still maintains the individuality and character that emanates from their respective terroirs.

LUCIANO SANDRONE

Sandrone started his career as a modest cellar-man, saving his money until he could afford to buy some vines in Barolo. He begun making his wines in his parent's garage, and by 1990 he had caught the world's attention. These wines are both traditional and modern, and offer incredible value for money.
