*Where we would usually pour 150ml for a standard glass of dry wine, we occasionally pour 120ml with the Coravin. This allows us to reduce the price accordingly, making these wines even more accessible. Coravin is a wine preservation system that allows us to extract a glass of wine from a bottle without taking the cork out. The technology permits us to pour some premium wines by the glass and avoid unnecessary wastage.

EQUIPO NAVAZOS

The Equipo Navazos project was started by a group of Spanish Sherry lovers led by wine writer Jesús Barquín. These 'Sherryphiles' were aware, through their own extensive tastings, of a treasure trove of brilliant Sherries that were sitting, unbottled, in the bodegas of Jerez, Sanlúcar and Montilla. The wines are bottled in limited series, in successive numbered editions, dated and named 'La Bota de....'

JOH JOS PRÜM

Joh Jos Prüm are in the middle part of the Mosel Valley in Germany. The family-owned estate is synonymous with late-harvest Riesling. Sugar seems to enhance their site-specific character, as they magically transcend each part of a dining experience.

PT. LEO ESTATE

Chardonnay grapes are gently pressed as whole bunches, barrel fermented, undergo a full malolactic fermentation and regular battonage (stirring of the lees) The resulting wines are rich and opulent in texture, with refreshing acidity and a signature saltiness.

FRANÇOIS MIKULSKI

Raised in Brussels, François spent his formative summers in Burgundy, where he fell in love with the agrarian lifestyle and determined that he would one day make wine himself. He typically restrains his new oak use to 20% or less, believing that excessive wood masks full expression of the terroir.

BINDI WINES

Few Australians come closer to the Burgundy model of the vigneron than Michael Dhillon of Bindi. Originally purchased in the 1950's as part of the larger grazing farm, Bindi is a 170 hectare farm of which 7 hectares are planted to Chardonnay and Pinot Noir.

DANIEL BOULAND

Bouland's wines are defiantly deep, dark, country-style reds with plenty of grip and overflowing with wild personality. These are wines that are built for the long haul (not to say they cannot be approachable as youngsters) hand-harvested from old vines, 100% whole bunch (open) ferments and no filtration.

THE STANDISH WINE CO.

Dan Standish established his eponymous Barossa Valley winery in 1999, whilst still working as winemaker at Torbreck. Shiraz is vinified to embrace and nurture the individuality afforded by clone, soil and aspect. The wines are strapping, yet with elegance and finesse.
